Jose Sarduy BIOGRAPHY

Gathering material from a wealth of life experiences, Jose takes audiences on the rollercoaster ride that's been his life. Born in Cuba and deported because of his father's political prisoner status, he came to the U.S. at a young age. Growing up with a hard working, and always quirky, Cuban family brought loads of funny moments everyday. From his mother's ability to kill a chicken with her bare hands, to his Dad's willingness to flirt with any woman, anytime, there was never a dull moment. What they did best was teach him to work hard for his dreams, and not forget how to laugh at life and himself. He made them proud when, after high school, he was accepted to the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado. He became an officer in the Air Force, is an accomplished aviator, and is a veteran having served in Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. He's been all over the world and has even been shot at in two countries. This and more he brings to the stage believing the mantra: "If you can't laugh at a hard time in your life, you aren't over it yet."

His comedy career started out in New York and Philadelphia, getting on stage anytime he wasn't serving. He performs all over the world now and is an audience favorite for his ability to make deportation, and life-threatening moments hysterical.

He's been featured in the Air Force Times, was selected for the 2007 Latino Laugh Festival in Los Angeles, and the Lucky 21 Contest at The Comedy Festival in Las Vegas. In 2008 he won the Funniest Person in South Texas Comedy Competition and was a semi-finalist in the San Francisco International Comedy Competition. In 2009, he was a finalist in the Seattle International Comedy Competition. In 2011 he was the winner of the Rocky Mountain Laugh Off in Salt Lake City, UT. He's been seen on CNN, CBS, Fox, and Lifetime's "Coming Home" with his touring group, The GIs of Comedy, and on NUVO TV's "Comedy Unfiltered," with Anjelah Johnson. He was the co-host of NUVO TV's "Stand Up and Deliver" which aired three seasons, appeared on Fox TV's "Laughs" in two seasons as both a performer and host, and was featured on the last season of NBC's "Last Call with Carson Daly." His comedy specials "Cuban Pilot" and "Airplanes & Broken English" on "Dry Bar Comedy" are at top of the company's most viewed lists. In 2026 he was featured on CBS's "Comics Unleashed." Most nights you can find him on stage somewhere, but one week a month its all dog tags and volleyball, down in Texas, teaching the next generation of top guns the basics.
